

Insurance and Reinsurance Services

The Hinshaw Advantage

The insurance industry is an important engine of economic and technological growth and an essential source of financial security, stability, and strength. This $4 trillion dollar industry — as measured by premiums — confronts business, regulatory, litigation, and claim challenges and opportunities on a daily basis. Insurers require and deserve sophisticated, cutting edge, creative counsel who deliver cogent advice, sophisticated representation, practical solutions and outstanding results.

Whether focusing on a particular claim, cession, transaction or matter, or considering their larger portfolio interests...whether in the claims stage, trial court, intermediate appellate court, court of last resort, or in negotiation, mediation or arbitration...whether dealing with policyholders, government regulators, consumers or other insurers...whether selecting the particular lawyers, the insurance practice group, or the firm as a whole...leading insurers call upon Hinshaw to protect their interests. Insurers appreciate the Hinshaw advantage.

World Class Advice and Representation Provided by a Premier Team of Insurance Lawyers

Hinshaw offers a premier team of leading insurance lawyers — more than 130 attorneys with significant combined legal experience. The breadth and depth of our diversified roster of lawyers is second to none when it comes to representing insurers in the full range of legal services.

- ◆ Our lawyers have an established track record of successfully representing insurers in a wide range of insurance and reinsurance matters throughout the country and globally.
- ◆ The preeminence of our group is exemplified further by the many honors, distinctions, and recognitions received by our lawyers. For example, members of our team are: ranked by Chambers USA; listed in U.S. News & World Report's Best Lawyers in America; fellows of the American College of Coverage and Extracontractual Counsel; and listed in Who's Who Legal Insurance and Reinsurance. Many Hinshaw lawyers have been selected by peers and clients for inclusion in Leading Lawyers, Client Choice, Super Lawyers and Rising Stars, and other prominent listings of top attorneys and have earned AV Preeminent® ratings from Martindale-Hubbell.

Through the experiences, expertise, talents, and skills of Hinshaw lawyers, our clients receive the advantages of sound strategy, precise execution and outstanding results.

A Long-Standing Tradition of Serving Insurers

Hinshaw has represented insurers in every facet of insurance law, in every domestic forum, and in the global market since the firm's founding in 1934. With this tradition of service comes an understanding of the insurance business, a respect for the needs and expectations of insurers and the professionals employed by them, a mastery of legal precedent, and an ability to place current and future challenges into context.

Our clients enjoy the Hinshaw advantages of tradition and perspective.

A Contemporary and Strategic Commitment to Serve Insurers

Providing superior legal services to insurers for decades to come is a central element of Hinshaw's strategic plan. Hinshaw delivers by attracting the leading legal talent and by providing an environment conducive to delivering top legal services. In recent years, for example, Hinshaw has added 50 seasoned insurance lawyers, including a team of preeminent insurance coverage, reinsurance, and extra-contractual lawyers with a national practice headquartered in Chicago; the leading regulatory and reinsurance lawyers from Barger & Wolen LLP in California and New York; additional leading coverage lawyers in Florida...and the list goes on.

Our clients enjoy the Hinshaw advantages of vision and commitment.

Professionals Who Know Insurance Law

Our legal professionals' commitment to insurance law does not start or stop when on the client's clock. To our lawyers, insurance law is a passion.

- ◆ Our lawyers author and contribute to leading treatises, handbooks, chapters, articles and white papers on a wide range of insurance and reinsurance topics.
- ◆ Our lawyers are members of, and hold leadership positions in, leading organizations such as: the Defense Research Institute (DRI); the American Bar Association (ABA) (Sections on Litigation and Tort Trial & Insurance Practice); ARIAS US; the Claims & Litigation Management Alliance (CLM); numerous state and local bar associations; Chartered Property & Casualty Underwriters (CPCU); the International Association of Defense Counsel; the Professional Liability Underwriting Society (PLUS); and many others.
- ◆ Our lawyers chair, teach and develop seminars, courses and conferences on insurance, reinsurance, litigation practice, claims management and the business of insurance.
- ◆ Our lawyers are thought leaders advocating on behalf of our clients, identifying trends and emerging issues, and providing strategies to address the global challenges and opportunities our clients currently face and will confront in the future.
- ◆ Our lawyers work on cutting edge issues, precedent setting cases and creative transactions, and have helped shape the law in areas of interest to our clients.
- ◆ We publish our own books, host seminars and broadcast webcasts on matters of interest to our clients.

Our clients enjoy the Hinshaw advantages of depth of knowledge and thought leadership.

Responsive Service-Oriented Representation

Hinshaw lawyers understand that providing high-caliber, creative, resourceful, professional advice and first-rate representation from seasoned litigators is critically important to our clients. Hinshaw lawyers regularly assist insurance industry clients in completing high-level business transactions such as strategic business sales and acquisitions, agency/broker relationships, licensing, and response to regulatory authorities. We have represented insurance companies and agencies, third-party administrators, managing financial agents, and claims specialist in these matters. Hinshaw lawyers have assisted clients in forming domestic captives to afford property, casualty and workers' compensation coverage for operations in all 50 states. We also advise clients regarding the economic risks and tax consequences associated with self-insurance and captive insurances.

Additionally, we have been involved in creating captive insurance companies, self-insured pools, risk retention groups, and other vehicles for risk transfer. We help companies manage risk by creating and implementing insurance programs and in drafting insurance policies, endorsements and exclusions.

Our lawyers regularly appear in a wide variety of regulatory matters before state insurance regulators nationwide, defending enforcement actions and other administrative proceedings involving various issues, orders to show cause, agency appeals, notices of non compliance, and rulemaking.

Hinshaw lawyers have considerable experience in insurance company conservation, rehabilitation and liquidation proceedings, including representing insurers before insurance regulators; preparing bids for assumption of business; negotiating and documenting commutations; and litigating reinsurance, claims and asset valuation disputes. Our insurance company insolvency litigation experience includes representing clients in state and federal courts, at both the trial and appellate levels.

We have represented numerous clients — both foreign and domestic — including secured and unsecured creditors of insolvent insurers and policyholder groups. Our attorneys provide advice and representation in connection with fraudulent conveyance and preferential transfer claims and allegations. We counsel insurers regarding required notices and disclosures to regulators and other interested persons. We also negotiate with insurance regulators and have acted as the statutory receiver of insolvent insurers. We have extensive experience advising on domestic and foreign insurance and reinsurance company insolvencies, schemes of arrangement, and run-off operations, and have devised and executed numerous successful strategies in the context of legacy businesses.

Claims, Litigation & Fees Management Services

Hinshaw counsels and represents insurers with respect to claims management, litigation management, and legal fees issues and disputes.

We help insurers analyze the reasonableness and necessity of costs and fees incurred in complex litigation. Our lawyers have served as counsel and as experts at the claims stage, in trial and appellate courts, and at mediations and arbitrations. Common matters we have addressed include analyzing fees and costs of independent counsel, Cumis counsel fee arbitrations, and allocating and apportioning fees and costs. We also assist insurers in implementing billing guidelines and cost controls in complex litigation.

Defense of Policyholders in Underlying Actions

Hinshaw attorneys are appointed by insurers to defend policyholders in personal injury, bodily injury, and property damage matters, construction matters; product liability matters; and professional liability and other matters.
