Hinshaw partner Craig Liljestrand recently profiled the Honorable Phillip J. Green, Magistrate Judge, U.S. District Court for the Western District of Michigan. The profile was published in the July/August 2019 edition of the Federal Bar Association's The Federal Lawyer magazine.

Liljestrand, who is a member of the FBA, is a complex mass tort and product liability attorney with extensive experience handling toxic torts and environmental litigation. Before joining Hinshaw, he was a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Doyle A. Rowland in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Michigan, a court in which he is now admitted to practice. Recognized for his litigation and trial skills, Liljestrand also has a regular column with the Chicago Daily Law Bulletin entitled "Toxic Tort Talk."
