Vishal Agnihotri, the Chief Knowledge Officer at Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP, was recently the subject of a story in Profile Magazine. Vishal, who has been in knowledge management for more than twenty years, talks about the current urgency around cultivating technology adoption in law firms. She also discusses the diversity of her experience, in career and life, and the importance what she calls “hybrid thinking.”

“Moore’s Law applies to technology, but it doesn’t apply to enterprise technology adoption. People and organizations are complex; they can’t just be switched on and off.”
