Hinshaw’s David S. Weinstein was quoted in a Compliance Weekly article titled “DOJ enforcement priorities for 2020 include antitrust,” authored by reporter Jaclyn Jaeger. The article reviews several notable developments concerning the Department of Justice’s (DOJ) enforcement priorities, including antitrust, the False Claims Act (FCA), and the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA).

Focusing on FCPA enforcement, Weinstein acknowledged the importance of noting the latest revisions to the Corporate Enforcement Policy. “Self-disclosure and cooperation still come with risk but, thanks to DOJ’s public pronouncements, one that can be measured with a little more precision,” he said.
