The U.S. law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Hinshaw attorney André Sesler of the firm's Tampa office has been appointed to serve as the Secretary of the Hillsborough County Bar Association (HCBA) Board of Directors. The appointment is of immediate effect.

Established in 1896, the HCBA is one of the largest voluntary bar associations in Florida with a membership close to 4,000 attorneys, judges and legal professionals.

André is a litigator who focuses his practice on insurance-related matters. He also counsels clients on professional liability, product liability, health care, and general liability defense issues. He received a B.S. from the University of South Florida, and a J.D. from the University of Florida Levin College of Law.

Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is a U.S.-based law firm with offices nationwide. The firm's national reputation spans the insurance industry, the financial services sector, professional services, and other highly regulated industries. Hinshaw provides holistic legal solutions—from litigation and dispute resolution, and business advisory and transactional services, to regulatory compliance—for clients of all sizes.
