Hinshaw attorney Barbara Fernandez—the partner-in-charge of the firm’s Miami office—was recently the subject of a Q&A published by the Daily Business Review (DBR). The article is the latest in a series that DBR has dubbed “Leading the Way,” a weekly Q&A with South Florida law firm leaders about how they’re navigating novel challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Barbara variously talked about pivoting to remote work in response to the pandemic, her excitement about the recent additions of new lawyers, and the firm’s practice focus in the South Florida market.
