The U.S. law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Miami-based partner Ofonedu-Ime Goodwyn has been appointed to serve as Vice Chair of The Florida Bar's Real Estate Certification Committee, effective today. Goodwyn was appointed to the position by the president-elect of The Florida Bar. The Committee includes eleven attorneys from across the state.

Goodwyn is a partner and Florida Bar Board Certified Real Estate Attorney in Hinshaw's Miami office. His practice focuses on real estate and commercial transactions. Goodwyn served as a member of The Florida Bar's Real Estate Certification Committee from 2021–2022. He also serves as the board chair of Neighborhood Housing Services of South Florida (NHSSF), a local community development organization founded over 40 years ago, providing a full spectrum of homeownership services to potential homebuyers.

Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is a U.S.-based law firm with offices nationwide. The firm's national reputation spans the insurance industry, the financial services sector, professional services, and other highly regulated industries. Hinshaw provides holistic legal solutions—from litigation and dispute resolution, and business advisory and transactional services, to regulatory compliance—for clients of all sizes.
