The U.S. law firm Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP today announced that Senior Counsel Robert Pohls has been named to Attorney Intel's list of “The Top 50 Attorneys of San Francisco for 2022.” The publication describes its honorees as having “... an unmatched passion and dedication to the legal profession.”

In a LinkedIn post sharing his recognition, Pohls stated, “I am greatly honored to have been selected as a Top 50 Attorney of San Francisco. This recognition prompts me to acknowledge (and sincerely thank) the many colleagues, mentors, family members and friends who have helped, supported and encouraged me throughout my career.”

Pohls represents insurers and corporations in various forms of complex litigation. For more than 30 years, he has focused his practice on representing life, health, and disability insurance companies. In addition, Pohls is a formally trained mediator and arbitrator who provides dispute resolution services, principally in disputes that involve life, health and disability insurance, ERISA and employee benefits, consumer lending and financial services, commercial disputes, labor and employment issues, and civil rights matters.
