The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that partner Robert Finley has been appointed to serve as a member of the Illinois State Bar Association's (ISBA) Health Care Law Section.

The mission of ISBA Health Care Law Section is to provide a forum for the exchange of ideas and information concerning health care law and the health care industry; to inform the public about important health law developments; to initiate, promote, and review federal and state law relating to health care matters; and to further these goals through seminars, publications, and other activities.

Finley's national civil defense and trial practice focuses on serving businesses and insurers in high-value and complex litigation matters involving specialized tort, employment, and healthcare practice areas including a wealth of experience in Medicaid third-party liability and Medicare secondary-payer regulatory and administrative matters. Finley served on ISBA Workers' Compensation Law Section Council for eleven years including as Chair in 2017.

Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is a U.S.-based law firm with offices nationwide. The firm's national reputation spans the insurance industry, the financial services sector, professional services, and other highly regulated industries.
