Feb 14, 2024

The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Mark Belongia has been recognized in the 2024 Edition of the Marquis “Who’s Who in American Law” directory.

Individuals featured in Marquis Who’s Who biographical volumes are chosen based on their current reference value and are considered based on factors such as their position, achievements, visibility, and prominence in their respective fields.

Belongia represents corporations on various transactional matters, including mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures across a range of industry sectors. He also represents numerous financial services companies on business litigation matters and regulatory issues before various state and federal agencies, including the Department of Treasury, Federal Reserve Board, Securities and Exchange Commission, and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.
