The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Kelechi Ajoku has been elected to the Executive Board of the St. John's University School of Law Alumni of Color Chapter ("AOCC").

The AOCC Executive Board's mission is to "elevate, engage, and empower" the St. John's University School of Law alumni and students of color by creating opportunities to reconnect, amplify alumni voices and perspectives, and honor their accomplishments.

Ajoku represents companies in labor and employment litigation involving claims of discrimination and harassment from inception to trial. She also provides employment training on these issues. As a Class of 2017 student at St. John's University School of Law, Ajoku was involved in several associations, including her role as president of the Black Law Students Association and member of the school's Entertainment, Arts, & Sports Law Association.
