The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Minneapolis office attorney Amanda Teske was recently appointed to the Board of Directors of Daily Work, a nonprofit providing employment support services and mentoring for job seekers in Minnesota.

Teske initially joined Daily Work as a case management intern for two summers while earning her undergraduate degree at the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities. As a Board Member, she will help lead initiatives for the nonprofit to further support the community in gaining financial sufficiency through quality employment.

Teske is an employment and business law attorney with extensive experience handling and counseling her clients in employment disputes, contract breaches, and discrimination claims. She is also committed to providing pro bono legal work to the local community, with an emphasis on helping individuals and families with immigration-related needs. Teske was recognized for her legal services by the Minnesota State Bar Association as a 2023 North Star Lawyer for Pro Bono Service.
