The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that partner Justyna Regan, PhD, has been appointed to be an Officer of the Advocates Society, serving as the Historian for the 2025–2026 term. She was officially sworn in on February 28, 2025 at the recent Advocates Society’s Annual Installation ceremony.

The Advocates Society is an association of Polish-American attorneys dedicated to promoting member welfare, fostering public relationships, advancing legal progress, upholding the legal profession’s dignity, and celebrating Polish-American culture and heritage.

Justyna provides legal counsel in international trade, cross-border transactions, mergers and acquisitions, business law, and data privacy matters. She is a former Fulbright scholar and a law professor. In addition to the Advocates Society, Justyna is a member of several organizations, including the Chicago Bar Association, Illinois State Bar Association, International Bar Association, and Wroclaw District Bar of Legal Counsel.
