The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that partner Michael Guerrero has been elected to serve on the Governing Committee of the Conference on Consumer Finance Law (CCFL).

The CCFL is a nonprofit organization founded in 1926 by members of the legal profession and the financial services industry to offer educational services, publications, and research on consumer financial services law. The CCFL's Governing Committee is responsible for establishing CCFL policies and directing its activities. Michael joins Hinshaw colleagues Lauren Campisi, Vaishali Rao, and Gregg Stevens, who also currently serve on the Governing Committee.

Michael is a trusted advisor for companies navigating consumer protection and financial services regulations, including credit products like credit cards and installment loans, earned wage access, and buy now, pay later programs. He advises clients on all aspects of the consumer credit product lifecycle—from product design, development, and licensing to advertising, ongoing compliance, and collections.

He has worked with a diverse range of clients, including banks, fintech firms, professional sports teams, retailers, and automotive finance companies, and provides due diligence for consumer company acquisitions. Michael has also been recognized by The Legal 500, the IFLR 1000, and has been named in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch for Communications Law.

Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is a U.S.-based law firm with offices nationwide. The firm's national reputation spans the insurance industry, the financial services sector, professional services, and other highly regulated industries. Hinshaw provides holistic legal solutions—from litigation and dispute resolution, and business advisory and transactional services, to regulatory compliance—for clients of all sizes.
