About Milica

Milica serves financial institutions, national mortgage servicers, and national banks in various consumer litigation matters in state, federal, and appellate courts throughout Illinois. She has extensive experience managing contested foreclosure cases, commercial litigation, and disputes related to consumer finance regulations. Milica regularly counsels clients on compliance and litigation risks arising under the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA), Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act (HOEPA), the Truth in Lending Act (TILA), and the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA).

Prior to joining Hinshaw, Milica managed a high-volume docket of financial services cases at another AmLaw 200 firm in Chicago and spent nearly seven years prosecuting mortgage foreclosures and handling a wide variety of litigation related to consumer financial services. Her experience shapes her strategic approach to representing clients today.
