About Buddy

Bernard “Buddy” is a litigator who represents businesses and municipal entities in both state and federal court. He is experienced in handling catastrophic injury cases, civil rights defense, commercial litigation, and municipal administrative proceedings.

Earlier in his career, Buddy worked for the Office of the Indiana Attorney General, where he quickly gained extensive experience defending complex claims in federal and state courts. In private practice, Buddy continued to represent governmental clients in defending them from civil rights and injury claims and providing general advice to specific agencies.
