About Clint

Clint is a client-focused litigation attorney concentrating on insurance defense, real estate, and commercial litigation. He has extensive experience representing clients in complex cases involving trucking accidents, premises liability, construction defects, wrongful death, and real estate disputes in state and federal courts. His practice also includes mediation and arbitration.

Clint combines in-house experience at an insurance agency, where he handled defense strategy and multi-million-dollar claims, with a decade running his own private law practice, giving clients a comprehensive perspective on litigation.

While in law school, Clint participated in the Innocence Project legal clinic, helping to overturn wrongful convictions through research, case analysis, and collaboration with defense teams.
