About Jazmine

Jazmine concentrates her practice on commercial litigation and insurance coverage, primarily handling complex coverage issues and bad faith matters.

She began her career at Hinshaw as a law clerk, gaining valuable experience with the litigation process. While in law school, Jazmine clerked at the Department of Children and Families, drafting petitions for dependency and termination of parental rights, and attended court hearings. She also served as a remote client intake support intern for the Legal Aid Society of Palm Beach County, assisting with intakes for landlord tenant and elder abuse cases. Jazmine was active in law school as president of the Hispanic Student Bar Association (HSBA) and as a member of the Journal of International Law and Comparative Studies (JILCS), progressing from junior to senior associate.

Did you know...

Outside of work, Jazmine values balance, movement, and quality time with friends and loved ones. Family is important to her, and she enjoys staying connected and present whenever possible. She is happiest when active—whether at the gym, in a Pilates or yoga class, or roller-skating and ice-skating for fun. Jazmine loves being near water, especially at the beach, where she can relax and recharge. Cooking is another creative outlet, as she enjoys trying new recipes and making meals that bring comfort and joy. Overall, Jazmine is active, grounded, and curious, while making space for both fun and meaningful connections.
