About Rebecca

Rebecca Taylor represents clients in complex civil litigation matters, including insurance defense, commercial and business disputes, and insurance coverage.

Before joining Hinshaw, she honed her skills at a regional full-service law firm, defending some of Florida's largest insurers. Her experience spans multiple areas of insurance defense and commercial litigation, including general liability, premises liability, and breach of contract matters.

Prior to beginning her legal career, Rebecca was actively engaged in her academic pursuits, clerking with various firms and externing with the City of Atlanta, Office of the Public Defender.
