Fernando has over a decade of experience advising financial institutions on a wide range of consumer finance disputes and regulatory matters, including consumer financial services, mortgage servicing, lender litigation, and foreclosure, title, and statutory claims.

A committed leader in the legal community, Fernando co-chairs the firm's Hispanic Latino Affinity Network and holds multiple leadership roles within the Hispanic National Bar Association, including Deputy Regional Governor for Region II and leadership of the Business Law Section. He is an alumnus of the ABA's Collaborative Bar Leadership Academy and serves as a mentor with LatinoJustice PRLDEF.

Fernando is also involved in the New York City Bar Association's Consumer Affairs Committee and the Puerto Rican Bar Association. Recognized among the HNBA's "Top Lawyers Under 40," Fernando helps advance initiatives that foster professional development, mentorship, and representation across the profession.
