About Francesca

With over a decade of handling investigations and litigation, Francesca represents financial institutions in high-stakes financial services litigation. Her background as a former prosecutor and Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) senior litigation counsel enables her to deliver practical, trial-tested guidance to clients facing regulatory scrutiny and contested matters.

Francesca began her legal career in government service as an Assistant District Attorney with the Manhattan District Attorney's Office, followed by her work as a federal prosecutor with the United States Department of Justice Tax Division. She most recently served as senior litigation counsel with the CFPB, litigating complex consumer financial protection matters in federal court.
