Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that partner Justyna Regan, PhD, has been appointed to a new Officer position with the Advocates Society, where she will serve as Secretary for the 2026–2027 term. She was formally inducted on February 26, 2026, at The Advocates Society’s Annual Installation Ceremony. Justyna previously served as Historian for the Advocates Society during the 2025–2026 term.

The Advocates Society is an association of Polish-American attorneys committed to promoting member welfare, fostering public relations, advancing legal progress, upholding the dignity of the legal profession, and celebrating Polish-American culture and heritage.

Justyna provides legal counsel in international trade, cross-border transactions, mergers and acquisitions, business law, and data privacy matters. She is a former Fulbright scholar and a law professor. Beyond the Advocates Society, Justyna is a member of several organizations, including the Chicago Bar Association, the Illinois State Bar Association, the International Bar Association, and the Wroclaw District Bar of Legal Counsels.
