About Benjamin

Benjamin represents clients in complex insurance and commercial litigation. He provides strategic solutions in alignment with each client's goals, helping them navigate litigation and settlement with steady, client-focused advocacy.

Prior to joining Hinshaw, Benjamin focused on insurance bad faith defense, representing several of the largest insurance companies in the United States. During law school, he gained meaningful experience in the sports, entertainment, and media industries through internships with an NFL franchise and Spanish-language media company.
