

California Senior Living – 2026 Legal, Regulatory and Insurance Update

Webinar

Apr 29, 2026

What Providers Need to Know to Manage Risk in a Shifting Landscape

Join legal and industry professionals on April 29, 2026 at 12:00 pm PT, for the California Senior Living – 2026 Legal, Regulatory and Insurance Update, a timely webinar designed to help administrators, owners, and operators understand the legal, regulatory, and insurance developments shaping today’s senior living risk environment.

With evolving insurance market conditions and changing regulatory and liability pressures, senior living providers must be prepared to make informed, proactive decisions.

This program will address critical issues impacting California senior living communities, including:

- Ongoing insurance market changes and coverage considerations
- Claims trends affecting nursing homes and RCFEs
- Recent legal developments influencing liability exposure and risk management

Through practical analysis and real world perspective, presenters will highlight where risk commonly arises and how providers can better position themselves before issues escalate.

Attendees Will Gain

- A clearer understanding of current legal and regulatory risks affecting senior living operations
- Insight into insurance and claims trends impacting coverage and cost considerations
- Practical considerations to help inform operational and financial planning
- A forward looking view of developments to watch in 2026 and beyond

Continuing Education Credits

This webinar offers 1.0 hours of NAB continuing education credit and 1.0 RCFE credit.
