Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that the firm has been recognized in the BTI Associate Satisfaction A-Listers 2026—a report measuring associates’ job satisfaction based on a large-scale, independent survey conducted by BTI Consulting.

Hinshaw was among a select number of law firms identified by associates as excelling in cultivating job satisfaction. The firm was also among a group of firms specifically identified by women associates as particularly successful in driving associate satisfaction.

What are Associates Looking for?

According to the 2026 BTI survey report, associates look for seven key measures of satisfaction:

- Abundant and clear commitment to accelerating their careers
- Meaningful and hyper-relevant training
- High-impact mentoring
- Clear career growth path within their firm
- Strong job satisfaction
- Targeted support addressing women associates’ distinct needs
- Having at least one partner actively invested in their success
