

Charles A. Simpson-Brown

New York, NY

He/Him/His

 212-655-3816

 csimpsonbrown@hinshawlaw.com

About Charles

Charles provides counsel and representation in consumer finance disputes, focusing on resolution, particularly regarding lending and servicing practices.

During law school, Charles was involved in the New York State Pro Bono Scholars Program, where he assisted in representing indigent clients.

Charles's Affiliations

- New York City Bar Association

Areas of Focus

Industries: Consumer Financial Services; Financial Services

Services: Financial Services Litigation

Recognition

- New York Pro Bono Scholar; Black Law School Students Association

Credentials

Education

City University of New York School of Law, JD

John Jay College of Criminal Justice – The City University of New York, BS

Bar Admissions

New York

Court Admissions

US District Court for the Eastern District of New York

US District Court for the Southern District of New York

Interests

Did you know...

Charles enjoys spending quality time with family and friends, engaging in both the participation and observation of basketball, and thoroughly exploring the diverse offerings of New York City.

Community/Civic Activities

- Village East Towers, Board of Directors, 2018-Present

Thought Leadership

Publications

- “The Hidden Dangers of Everyday Emails: Waiving Rights and Creating Obligations,” New York Law Journal, May 5, 2025