

Hinshaw Insurance Law TV | 250 Years of Insurance in the United States

Press Release | less than 1 min read

Jul 14, 2026

On a new episode of Hinshaw Insurance Law TV, Scott Seaman, co-leader of the firm's Global Insurance Services group, joins Peter Lewis to discuss the new book they recently co-authored with Pedro E. Hernandez, America 250: A History of Insurance and Insurance Coverage Law and Litigation in the United States.

Key Discussion Topics

- Lines of insurance that America helped develop
- America's notable contributions to the duty to defend, bad faith, and extra-contractual liability
- The progression and state of insurance coverage litigation
- The impact of social inflation, climate change, aviation, and AI on the future of insurance
