Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is delighted to announce that partner Paris Glazer of the firm's Insurance Services group has been selected by Chicago Daily Law Bulletin and Chicago Lawyer among its "40 Under Forty 2026 Illinois Attorneys to Watch."

For over 25 years, the Chicago Daily Law Bulletin and Chicago Lawyer have recognized 40 attorneys under the age of 40 from across the State of Illinois for character, exemplary legal skills and accomplishments, and commitment to community service.

40 Under Forty Profile

The Law Bulletin describes Paris as a sophisticated civil litigator who represents U.S., London, and Bermuda insurers in complex coverage matters nationwide, including disputes ranging from environmental, construction, and manufacturing losses to commercial space launch claims. It goes on to describe his approach to oral advocacy, his ability to adapt his approach as circumstances change, and his reputation among his peers as a pragmatic and personable practitioner.

About Paris

Paris guides his clients through trials, appeals, arbitrations, and mediations involving first- and third-party insurance coverage disputes, business disputes, and catastrophic accidents.

In the insurance sector, Paris represents domestic and international carriers on a broad range of claims, from routine matters to complex and emerging coverage issues.

Paris is active in the legal community as a member of the Armadillo Club and has also been recognized by Best Lawyers and Illinois Super Lawyers for his practice.
