Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that partner Min Kang has been appointed to serve on the Washington State Bar Association (WSBA) Board of Governors. Min will fill the remainder of District 2 Governor Kari Petrasek's term and continue serving in the role through 2028. Petrasek is vacating her seat to assume the role of WSBA President.

About the WSBA Board of Governors

The WSBA Board of Governors serves as the governing body of the Washington State Bar Association, overseeing the organization's general policies and annual budget. According to the WSBA, "The board moves the Bar forward with an eye toward its long-standing mission, guiding principles, and short-term strategic goals." Board members are elected from each of Washington's congressional districts and play a vital role in guiding the future of the legal profession throughout the state.
