Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is proud to announce that BTI Consulting has ranked the firm as a “Powerhouse in Litigation”—the highest client satisfaction tier—in its “BTI Litigation Outlook 2027: More Aggressive. More Complexity. Higher Stakes.” client survey.

The survey notes that firms rated as Litigation Powerhouses “are leading the litigation market.” Survey respondents were asked to rate firms based on the following in 10 litigation segments:

- Ideas and approaches
- Client service
- Prior performance
- Prowess in dealing with aggressive counsel

About the BTI Litigation Outlook 2027 Survey

The BTI Litigation Outlook 2027 is based on surveys from leading legal decision-makers at organizations with $1 billion or more in revenue across over 15 industries. This detailed analysis takes data from more than 350 interviewees.

According to BTI, the survey targets “the decision-makers in the industries who spend the most on legal affairs as well as thought leaders and innovative corporate counsel.”

The other Litigation Outlook ranking tiers include Leaders, Distinguished, and Standouts.
