Ian Wagreich Discusses Key Immigration Developments Impacting International Students

At Lindenwood University

Event
Oct 5, 2026, 6:00 pm CST
St. Charles, Missouri

Hinshaw partner Ian Wagreich will present on recent immigration developments affecting international students on October 5 at 6:00 pm CT during a Life After Lindenwood event at Lindenwood University.

Hosted by Lindenwood University's Men's Rugby program in partnership with International Admissions, the session is open to all international students. Ian will provide practical insights into evolving immigration policies, enforcement trends, and legal developments that may impact students studying and working in the US.

Session Objectives:

- Discuss proposed changes to F-1 visa duration of status (D/S) requirements.
- Examine increased government scrutiny of Curricular Practical Training (CPT) programs.
- Review evolving vetting procedures, including social media screening and background checks.
- Analyze ongoing legal challenges to speech-based deportation policies.
