Sabrina Smith Participates in New York Law School Speed-Networking Event

Event
Nov 11, 2026
New York, New York

Hinshaw attorney Sabrina Smith will participate in a speed-networking event hosted by New York Law School on November 11, 2026.

This interactive event will give current New York Law School students the opportunity to connect with and learn from legal professionals. Participating attorneys will be stationed at individual tables as students rotate through brief networking sessions, providing a chance to ask questions, gain insight into the legal profession, and build meaningful professional connections.

Sabrina is a proud New York Law School alumna, having earned her law degree in 2022.
