Directions

The Iselin office stands out as a strategic hub for high-stakes legal work, combining deep litigation experience with sophisticated transactional counsel. Nearly all attorneys in the office are engaged in complex disputes, while also advising clients on regulatory compliance, commercial transactions, and risk mitigation. This integrated approach enables the team to support institutional clients across trial and appellate courts, regulatory forums, and deal-making environments nationwide. With notable strength in banking and finance, insurance, and commercial litigation, Iselin is a trusted resource for organizations navigating challenges in one of the country's most vital commercial corridors and beyond.
