

Cassidy Chivers to Discuss “Ethical Issues in Licensing” in PLI Legal Education Course

Webinar

Dec 5, 2018

Cassidy Chivers, a San Francisco-based partner at Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP, is part of the faculty of a Practising Law Institute (PLI) Program titled, “Understanding the Intellectual Property License 2018.” Chivers will present “Ethical Issues on Licensing” on Wednesday, December 5, 2018 at 4:00 p.m. Pacific.

Her presentation will consider topics such as candor and deceit; communicating with an adverse party; out-of-state practice and the unauthorized practice of law; and the application of rules in actual cases. The PLI program is designed for intellectual property corporate counsel and general practitioners.

For more information and to register for “Understanding the Intellectual Property License 2018,” visit the PLI website.

Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is a U.S.-based law firm with offices nationwide. The firm’s national reputation spans the insurance industry, the financial services sector, professional services, and other highly regulated industries. Hinshaw provides holistic legal solutions—from litigation and dispute resolution, and business advisory and transactional services, to regulatory compliance—for clients of all sizes. Visit www.hinshawlaw.com for more information and follow @Hinshaw on LinkedIn and X.

Event Information

Webinar

Related Capabilities

Intellectual Property