

Adam Guetzow to Present on Risks for Potential COVID-19 Litigation and Liabilities for Long-Term Care Providers

Webinar

Aug 18, 2020

Hinshaw's Adam Guetzow will speak in a panel presentation titled "Focus on Related COVID-19 Potential Litigation and Liabilities that LTC Providers Cannot Ignore," on August 18, 2020. The program is part of a virtual conference hosted by the American Conference Institute (ACI) that centers on COVID-19 liability as it relates to long-term care and senior providers.

Guetzow's presentation will cover a variety of topics, including:

- Circumstance that may give rise to both criminal and civil fraud and abuse allegations
- The probability of antitrust activity
- Whistleblower actions
- Investigating fraud claims from residents regarding having services and activities curtailed
