

Maryjo Pirages Reynolds Discusses Accommodating the Needs of Working Parents in the Age of COVID-19

Webinar

Sep 4, 2020

Hinshaw’s Maryjo Pirages Reynolds presented a webinar titled “Employer Discussion: Addressing the Needs of Workers with Children during COVID-19,” on September 4, 2020. Topics addressed include the ABC’s of employment law—the FFCRA, FMLA, ADA, Title VII, the CARES Act, and the ADEA—as well as how to help and support parents returning to work.

The program was hosted by The Workforce Connections (TWC). Committed to providing a workforce that meets the needs of the business community, TWC was established by the Governor of the State of Illinois in response to the federal Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA).
