About Peter

Peter is a skilled consumer financial services attorney who represents lending institutions in federal and state courts nationwide. He advises clients on a broad range of banking matters, including creditor's rights, real property disputes, regulatory compliance, and transactional issues. Peter also counsels financial institutions on complex commercial and residential mortgage foreclosure matters, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) regulations, Real Estate Owned (REO) asset management, and attachment proceedings.

In addition, Peter handles pre-suit and arbitration demands, as well as regulatory violation claims relating to the Florida Consumer Collection Practices Act (FCCPA), Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act (FDUTPA), Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), and the Electronic Funds Transfer Act (EFTA). He also has significant experience in commercial and real estate transactions, assisting clients with contract drafting, title and loan document review, and closing procedures.
