About Maida

Maida focuses her practice on insurance coverage litigation and counseling, handling both complex and discrete disputes involving environmental liability, product liability, directors and officers liability, and construction defects. She also advises corporate clients and domestic and international insurers on bad faith exposures, risk management, claims handling, and general business matters.

With a strong background in civil litigation, Maida also defends insureds in a wide-range of matters, including premises liability, auto liability, construction defect, and consumer fraud actions in New Jersey state and federal courts.
