

Vaishali Rao and Han Sheng Beh to Lead CLE on Regulatory Shifts and Agency Power at the 2024 NAPABA Convention

Event

Nov 9, 2024

Hinshaw partners Vaishali Rao and Han Sheng Beh will co-present a CLE titled “Adapting to Regulatory Evolution: Decision-Making in a World of Shifting Agency Power” at the 2024 NAPABA Convention in Seattle, Washington, on November 9, 2024.

Businesses are significantly impacted by how regulatory agencies interpret and apply rules. Recent Supreme Court cases, such as Loper Bright Enterprises v. Raimondo and Relentless, Inc. v. Department of Commerce, have sparked ongoing debates over the scope of agency power and judicial deference. These cases continue to reshape regulatory and administrative law, influencing how businesses interact with regulators.

This CLE session will explore the future of agency deference, the evolving role of the judiciary, and strategies businesses can use to navigate regulatory decision-making effectively.
