About Jason

Jason has over 25 years of experience practicing law and is a certified workers' compensation law specialist recognized by the California Board of Legal Specialization. He represents clients in workers' compensation defense as well as in labor and employment cases. His extensive services are designed for self-insured employers and insurance companies, including professional employer organizations (PEOs) and Fortune 200 clients across the nation. Additionally, Jason handles claims related to harassment, discrimination, and disputes over employment contracts.

Combining his knowledge of human resources and the staffing industry with litigation defense experience, Jason counsels clients on exposure claims and complex compensation disputes. He serves on panels for premier insurance companies and acts as outside general counsel to businesses. He also helps clients with insurance coverage and allocation, bad faith, employment practices liability, and professional liability, developing effective risk management programs.

Jason represents Korean-speaking clients in various business matters. In addition, he defends sports teams in workers' compensation claims, including the Los Angeles Lakers, Los Angeles Kings, Los Angeles Sparks, Chicago Bears, and Chicago Cubs.

He previously served on the firm's Steering and Executive Committees and chaired the Asian Affinity Group.
