

Mohamed Sweify to Present CLE Panel During New York Arbitration Week Organized by the International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution (CPR)

Event

Nov 18, 2024

New York-based attorney Mohamed Sweify will participate in a CLE panel titled “New York Is Supportive of Arbitration at Every Stage of the Proceeding,” on November 18, 2024, in New York, New York. Organized by the International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution (CPR) during New York Arbitration Week, the panel will highlight New York’s comprehensive support for arbitration, covering every phase from pre-arbitration to post-award enforcement. The discussion will examine New York’s favorable laws, its arbitration-supportive courts, and recent rulings that enhance award enforcement, affirming New York’s position as a leading arbitration jurisdiction.
