Hinshaw attorneys David Alfini, Adam Guetzow, and Sam Crowley will present a continuing education seminar titled “Emerging Claims Handling Issues for Insurance Professionals,” on February 25, 2021. The program—which is part of the American Educational Institute’s Claims Education Conference webinar series—will cover recent impacts on claims handling of COVID-19, use and misuse of social media, technology changes, legalization of certain previously controlled substances, and healthcare changes and advancements.

All insurance professionals are encouraged to attend this complementary event. The program is approved for CE Adjuster credit in Florida, Kentucky, New Hampshire, and Texas.
