Community Efforts to Prevent Juvenile Crime and Provide ...

Join Hinshaw, Chicago West Community Music Center, and Lawyers for the Creative Arts on March 16, 2021 for an important and timely panel discussion featuring representatives from various community efforts. Moderated by Hinshaw's Sam Crowley, panelists will discuss their experiences with the juvenile crime issues facing Chicago, as well as their efforts to effectuate positive change. The program will also include a performance by students from the Chicago West Community Music Center which provides music education for underprivileged youth.

Who Should Attend?

Anyone interested in bringing about change and supporting the effort to shift the culture of violence and crime in Chicago is encouraged to attend, including Chicago businesses and members of the legal community, as well as law enforcement, school personnel, religious groups, parents, residents, and community organizers.
