About Kenneth

An experienced real estate and business lawyer, Kenneth advises owners and operators of real estate in the purchase and sale of complex, multistate transactions for established companies and new developers.

Kenneth routinely handles the formation and representation of closely held corporations, limited liability companies, and limited partnerships. He has experience in handling secured real estate lending transactions, joint venture negotiations, and estate matters as they pertain to business and commercial ventures.

Kenneth's clients also include restaurants and owners of liquor licenses, whom he represents in alcoholic beverage licensing matters.
