About Taylor

Taylor focuses his practice on insurance services. He guides clients through all phases of litigation, from discovery and legal research to depositions and drafting motions, and all the way through trial.

Taylor brings a wealth of trial experience into every case he handles. As a former Assistant State Attorney for Florida's Tenth Judicial Circuit, he prosecuted thousands of cases ranging from simple misdemeanors to complex felonies, including attempted first-degree murder. During his time as a prosecutor, Taylor first-chaired dozens of bench and jury trials to verdict.

While earning his law degree, Taylor was a member of the number one nationally ranked Moot Court Honor Board, where he competed in five national competitions. He graduated in the top 8% of his class.
