About Kyle

An experienced litigator, Kyle represents financial institutions in litigation, focusing primarily on consumer financial services matters. He works closely with mortgage loan servicers to ensure compliance with federal and state regulations, respond to agency inquiries and investigations, and resolve disputes through affirmative litigation and strategic, cost-effective litigation.

In addition to handling all manner of financial services disputes, Kyle has substantial experience in the areas of bodily injury liability insurance, PIP liability defense, and no-fault insurance.

In addition to his insurance-industry work, Kyle has experience in a broad range of commercial and appellate litigation.
