About Jamal

Jamal focuses his practice on litigation. Drawing on almost a decade of experience in areas such as personal injury, labor law, workers' compensation, foreclosure, criminal law, and real estate to tailor effective litigation strategies for his clients.

Prior to joining Hinshaw, Jamal was senior counsel at the New York City Law Department, where he defended the City of New York and its client agencies in complex, high-exposure cases from commencement through resolution. He has extensive experience in defending claims arising out of premises liability, motor vehicle accidents, negligent supervision, and wrongful death.
