About Angela

Angela represents a diverse range of clients, advocating for their interests in high-stakes commercial business disputes, transportation issues, insurance coverage, and complex business matters. She has defended intricate marine casualty cases, wrongful death claims, and other personal injury and property damage events. Angela supports large corporations and business owners in both state and federal courts, providing strategic guidance from pre-litigation through trial.

Before joining Hinshaw, Angela handled insurance matters at a New Orleans firm. While earning her law degree, Angela served as a managing editor of the Tulane Journal of Technology & Intellectual Property.
