About Joshua

Joshua counsels businesses and individuals on various insurance-related matters. He seeks to advance his clients' business objectives through informed legal analysis, and diligent defense of client interests.

Before concentrating his practice in the insurance industry, Joshua focused on complex commercial litigation, commercial transactions, and estate planning.

While earning his law degree, Joshua participated in the John T. Gaubatz Moot Court Competition. His study of political science and film provides value as an attorney in legal analysis, logical reasoning, and creative presentation.
