

Glenda M. Almela

Miami, FL

She/Her

📞 305-428-5113

✉️ galmela@hinshawlaw.com

About Glenda

Glenda represents corporations and insurance companies in disputes involving first-party property and liability coverage, drawing on extensive experience defending insurers and homeowners in complex coverage matters. She also represents corporations and employees in issues related to the Fair Labor Standard Act, the Florida Minimum Wage Act, and Title VII.

Before joining Hinshaw, Glenda practiced at a mid-size firm and represented one of the biggest insurance companies in the state of Florida in property claims.

Glenda's Affiliations

- The Florida Bar, The Young Lawyers Division

Areas of Focus

Industries: Construction; Insurance

Services: Bad Faith, Market Conduct & Extra-Contractual Liability; Complex Commercial Litigation; Employment Advice & Counseling; Employment Litigation;

Insurance Coverage Litigation & Counseling; Labor & Employment; Litigation & Trial

Initiatives: International Law & Alliances

Recognition

- Florida International University College of Law, CALI Excellence for the Future Award in Litigation Skills and Values and in National Security and the Constitution; Moot Madrid Arbitration Competition, Honorable Writing Award for the Brief filed on Behalf of Claimant, and Honorable Writing Award for the Offer Letter to Present Settlement; Pro Bono Service Award

Credentials

Education

Florida International University College of Law, JD, cum laude

Florida International University, BS

Bar Admissions

Florida

Court Admissions

US District Court for the Middle District of Florida

US District Court for the Southern District of Florida

Interests

Did you know...

Glenda enjoys traveling, reading fiction, attending polo matches, and the ballet.